

Washington, DC- Congressman Dan Lungren (R-CA) has been selected to serve on a Judiciary Task Force which will conduct an inquiry into whether United States District Judge G. Thomas Porteous should be impeached.

“This is very serious matter; and along with my fellow Judiciary Colleagues, I intend to objectively review the evidence presented before the task force and allow the evidence to speak for itself,” Lungren said.